

Dan McComb is the President and a Principal at dcb Construction Company, Inc. He has a 25-year track record successfully guiding companies in the construction, design and manufacturing industries. Mr. McComb brings invaluable experience in residential, commercial and retail construction management, and he has overseen projects with budgets as large as in the tens of millions of dollars.

Prior to assuming the role of President, Mr. McComb spent six years as CFO and Construction Operations Manager at dcb Construction. During that time, he played an integral role in helping design, construct and complete hundreds of buildings for owners, users and developers.

Mr. McComb earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting (magna cum laude) from Loras College in Iowa. He is a member of the Construction Financial Management Association and has served on various community related, non-profit boards in Colorado. He has been on the board of Into Your Hands Africa for three years and currently serves as Secretary. He lives in Littleton, Colorado, and has two children currently enrolled in college and in his spare time enjoys reading mystery novels, taking long walks on the beach, skiing, biking, hiking, and playing hockey and getting in fights on the ice.

