

Denis Kasule

Denis comes to IYHA with a Degree in Development Studies, a certificate in Administrative Law, and a decade of experience in Community Development as well as local government. Dennis began his career working with programs supporting Orphans and Other Vulnerable Children, and currently serves as a Senior Community Development Officer with the Lwengo Council (the district in which IYHA operates). Dennis's extensive technical experience with local programming has been instrumental to IYHA, helping inform our programs and ensure that IYHA's programs are achieving maximum impact.
